What is a “Complete Sentence” Review
A complete sentence contains one complete thought.

Read each of the following statements. If it is a complete sentence, check off the line that precedes it. If it isn’t, rewrite the statement to make it complete.

1. The weather outside is frightful.

2. And Mrs. Bigg is really funny.

3. The real reason is.

4. You can go.

5. Zack has six puppies.

6. To the store.

7. Because I'm in a bad mood.

8. I love the Buffalo Bills.

9. Do you hear what I hear?
